

In Health Insurance Crisis, Central County 911 Emergency Dispatch Leaps into Action with ECCHIC

The EMS, fire and rescue teams of Central County 911 Emergency Dispatch in St. Louis County, MO are no strangers to dangerous, time-sensitive environments. In accordance, this group needs a health insurance program that can keep up with the treacherous situations they must face on an everyday-basis. The ECCHIC program has proven itself worthy to this fearless team of brave life-savers since 1997, and continues to make daily advances in better serving their entrusted clients.

This effective cost-management program focuses on identifying excesses and inefficiencies in health care, and then showing employee groups how to eliminate it and make the most competent use of the medical dollar. Michael Turner, Executive Director of Central County 911 Emergency Dispatch, says the ECCHIC team has gone above and beyond this expectation with his benefited group. "We have had a surplus of funds each year." He continues to explain, "In addition, the employees had to pay 25 percent of their premium, and now with the savings, the employees no longer have to contribute to the plan."

The ECCHIC group has been providing solutions for Employers Committed to Control Health Insurance Costs since 1989. Their cost-management methods have stabilized insurance rates for dozens-and-dozens of public and private groups, ranging in size from two employees to hundreds of employees, saving them hundreds-of-thousands of dollars.

Utilizing the ECCHIC method has given Central County 911 Emergency Dispatch the ability to design and customize their own benefits package to suit their specific needs and create stable and predictable benefit budgets year-to-year. The ECCHIC program makes being in the dark about health insurance a thing of the past. Knowledge is power, and that's what this group of professional, cost-management experts provides.

Michael Turner was introduced to the many benefits of the ECCHIC program in 1997. By conducting free informational workshop luncheons, Howard Danzig presents his cost-management methods in an educational environment where everyone can ask questions while learning about the many advantages of ECCHIC. In regards to those who are considering switching over to the ECCHIC plan, Turner suggests, "I would advise them to look closely at this opportunity to stabilize health benefits and keep costs under control."
